

WHY HOLD A RECITAL?

The benefits of holding a student recital are immeasurable.

PRESENT A RECITAL TO:

- Offer students a chance to be in the spotlight and gain recognition.
- Teach performance etiquette.
- Equip students to become more confident musicians.
- Provide students an opportunity to demonstrate their skill and technique in a concert setting after weeks of practice.
- Give students self-motivation, knowing they'll be performing for a crowd.
- Help set goals for young musicians.
- Promote better practice sessions year-round.
- Teach students to memorize from the start.
- Encourage students to play more musically.
- Attract more music students.
- To provide an opportunity for parents, friends, and fellow musicians to recognize the achievement of each performer.
- Help students build social skills, increase memory skills, and self-discipline.
- Give students a sense of achievement.
- Give students a fun-filled event in which to participate!
